BROOKS ANNOUNCES PACTECH PACKAGING IS BUSINESS OF THE MONTH

Monroe County Executive Maggie Brooks today announced that Pactech Packaging, Inc. (Pactech) has been named Monroe County's "Business of the Month" and is featured on Monroe County's website, monroecounty.gov. Pactech was founded in 1991 and is a local supplier of innovative flexible packaging solutions.

"Pactech is an incredible company that designs and develops new packaging products that are used by companies all over the world," said Monroe County Executive Brooks. "I am proud that Pactech has made Monroe County their home and I thank them for their continued investment in our local economy and creating highly skilled jobs."

Pactech designs and manufactures bags for a wide-variety of industries that include: agriculture, chemical, military, pharmaceutical, and medical. Pactech prides itself on its specialized packaging services and their product line includes: stand-up zipper bags, barrier bags, liners, and fitment bags. Pactech serves a number of Fortune 500 companies such as DuPont, Eli Lilly, and Merck.

"We are proud to call Monroe County our home and excited about the growth opportunities our new manufacturing facility in the Town of Ogden provides. We are thankful for the coordinated efforts of Genesee Regional Bank and the Monroe County Industrial Development Corporation for their assistance in purchasing of our new facility," said Chad Buchta, President of Pactech Packaging LLC.

Pactech recently purchased and completed a renovation of their new 127,000 square foot facility on Manitou Road in the Town of Ogden. The Monroe County Industrial Development Corporation was involved in the project through the SBA 504 loan program. Pactech currently has 65 employees and projects a 5-10% growth in 2012.
